RULES: For all nominated awards, the Bloom entrant is advised to inform the proprietor of the judging date and time as soon as it is confirmed with the EMiB judges. It is often helpful to have the proprietor on site when the judges visit.

Previous winners of the Frank Constable MBE Award cannot win the prize again but they can re-enter to be judged and receive a certificate. Previous winners of categories B and C have to take a year out if they have won for three years consecutively and can then re-enter after that period. If entering category B and/or C independently (i.e. not part of a local 'Bloom' entry), a charge of £10 per category is made to cover judging expenses. Temporary displays are ineligible and all work must be original. EMiB Judges reserve the right to disqualify entrants who submit outside of the criteria and their decision is final. East Midlands in Bloom reserve the right to use photographs of the entry for publication purposes. Please ensure you have permission from the parents /guardians of children or vulnerable adults. By entering these awards you agree to abide by these rules.
